Lights, Camera, Action: Engaging the Gen Z Student
Monday, November 4; 12:30 - 1:30 pm; Council 144

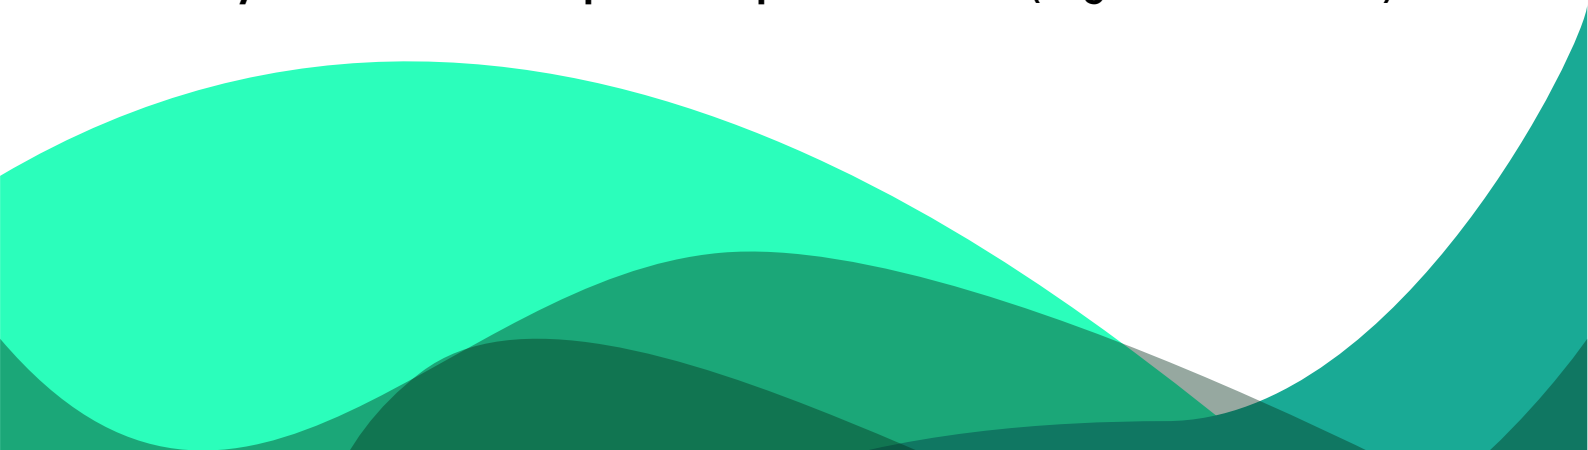

Lights, Camera, Action: Engaging the Gen Z Student! When it comes to learning, Gen Z's go-to medium is video. They rank learning through YouTube just behind learning from teachers but well ahead of lectures, textbooks, and learning apps. Join us at the Video Production Studio for a behind the scenes adventure! Explore how we can collaborate to develop innovative educational experiences, while learning about techniques that bring learning to life.

New Faculty First Semester Key Milestones
Wednesday, November 6; 3:30 pm - 5:00 pm; Founders 8 (New Faculty Only)

Building a DEI Course & Inclusive Learning Environment
Thursday, November 7; 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm; Founders 8

Join us for an engaging discussion about designing DEI courses and how to create more inclusive learning environments. This interactive workshop provides faculty with support to start a DEI course proposal and brings together faculty to share experiences, challenges, and successful approaches to inclusive teaching.

Podcast Club
Friday, November 8; 3:30 pm - 5:00 pm; Founders 8 (Registration Closed)

AI in Ultra: Exploring Options for AI Development and Integration
Thursday, November 14; 12:30 pm - 1:30 pm; Founders 8

Join us for a guided exploration into the integration of AI tools in Blackboard Ultra, including the new AI Conversation feature, a custom chatbot available in Ultra to help support and extend instruction via deeper learning and supportive questioning.
